Investment update - January

Volatility returned to markets in January as the World Health Organization declared the Coronavirus epidemic a global health emergency, negating the earlier optimism surrounding the successful first phase of the US/China trade deal. The outbreak has affected oil and mining shares, which declined as global markets priced in the potential fall in demand from China; the world's largest importer of oil. The end of the month also sounded the bell for Brexit, although this was merely a symbolic date as negotiations for a free trade agreement will most likely be ongoing for the rest of the year. The US airstrike on a high-ranking Iranian official during the month, though barely felt across markets, will undoubtedly lead to a rise in further tension in the region. With some uncertainty creeping back into markets, no changes were made to the Balanced strategy in January at a headline level. However, the decision was made to switch from the GBP hedge share class to the unhedge share class of the Man GLG Japan CoreAlpha fund. The low rates of economic growth that are forecast may mean lower nominal returns in 2020 than in 2019, but with low inflation and a stable interest rate environment almost everywhere, the potential for better medium and longer-term opportunities remain in risk assets. As such the equity content within the strategy has remained at 55%, with the possibility of adding further exposure to equities if the opportunity arises.
