Investment update - September

The market sell-off in August continued into September, driven by persistent high inflation, hawkish rhetoric from central banks and downward expectations for economic growth. It was a particularly tumultuous month in the UK. The government's 'mini-budget', which set out plans for a larger-than-expected fiscal package and further substantial government borrowing, caused a spike in gilt yields and a dramatic fall in sterling to an historic low of $1.03. Intervention by the Bank of England, who purchased longer-dated issues in an attempt to stabilise bond prices, led to a modest recovery in gilts by the month's end. The continued hawkish backdrop pushed bond yields significantly higher and prices lower. Both the US Federal Reserve and European Central Bank increased rates by a further 75 bps in September. On a potentially more positive note, the resilience of corporate earnings may suggest that equity markets have priced in much of the bad news. The same can potentially be said of some areas of the fixed interest markets if inflationary pressures are indeed set to recede. As such, no changes were made during the month as we maintain our commitment to equities, which have historically provided the best defence against inflation. The strategy remains at the top end of its allowable equity range. At some point the coast may become clearer for fixed interest markets but volatility currently remains extremely high. Until then, allocations to highly liquid 'alternative' investment funds, which exhibit low levels of volatility and function as an effective risk management tool, are being maintained.

Headline positioning

- ~ The strategies remain at the top end of their allowable equity range with good exposure to those parts of the world less likely to be exposed to the economic fall-out from war in Ukraine.
- ~ We have reduced or removed entirely our exposure to Europe and increased our allocation to Asia-Pacific ex Japan, where fundamentals and valuations look fairly attractive, and policy is more supportive for risk assets.
- ~ In our lower risk strategies, we continue to favour inflation-linked bond funds, actively managed strategic bond funds and 'market neutral' alternative investments, which continue to act as good portfolio stabilisers, diversifiers of risk and sources of return.
- ~ Cash exposure remains low and there continues to be focus on high levels of liquidity in everything that we own.
