Investment objective

To build capital in real (inflation-adjusted) terms over the medium to longer term. Investors should expect a high correlation to stock market behaviour and rewards, including significant fluctuations in value, with only moderate protection in times of market weakness.

Risk profile

The strategy is managed in accordance with Dynamic Planner risk profile 6 and is part of their Risk Targeted Managed ('RTM') offering. The strategy's expected volatility is targeted to stay within the assigned Dynamic Planner risk profile's boundaries.

About the Risk Targeted Managed Service

Our Risk Targeted ('RT') Managed Service consists of five actively managed investment growth strategies (Risk Targeted 3-7). Each strategy has a different level of risk and expected return, and are rigorously mapped within the volatility boundaries assigned to specific Dynamic Planner risk profiles (RTM 3-7).

Investment update

After an excellent couple of months for markets to end 2023, returns were rather more mixed in January. Economic data in January was positive overall, particularly in the US where labour and GDP data again surprised on the upside. This positive economic news did, however, also trigger renewed uncertainty over the timing and extent of a potential reversal in interest rate policy. The dovish sentiment that prevailed at the end of last year was also dampened by some cautionary comments from the US Federal Reserve at their latest policy committee meeting. The more hawkish sentiment weighed on some areas of the equity markets, taking the edge off some of the recent strong rally. The strategy remains at the upper end of its corresponding Dynamic Planner risk profile. Global stockmarket returns in 2023 were hugely distorted by the performance of a small handful of (principally US-listed 'mega cap') shares. Selectively, we expect further participation from some of the market behemoths however a turn in the interest rate cycle should particularly favour less-expensive, quality growth companies further down the market cap scale. Oscillating rhetoric on inflation and interest rates during 2023 has meant several false dawns for fixed interest investments however our phased re-introduction of risk within bond markets over the past 12 months was well rewarded at the end of last year. Over the month, we have further increased our fixed interest duration through the addition of the Vanguard UK Long Duration Gilt Index fund where longer-duration opportunities are more plentiful than credit markets at the expense of the residual defensive, conventional and alternative fixed interest elements of the strategy.
