Risk Targeted Decumulation Service

The service consists of three actively managed investment strategies that are designed for investors in drawdown. The service puts capital preservation first and seeks to minimise the risk of eroding capital in falling markets whilst a fixed regular income is being taken.

Each investment strategy has a different level of risk and expected return, with each targeted to a particular Dynamic Planner Risk Managed Decumulation ('RMD') risk profile (4-6). Each investment strategy is checked by Dynamic Planner on a monthly basis to ensure that it stays within the expected annual Value at Risk ('VaR') boundaries assigned to the corresponding Dynamic Planner risk profile.

The service is available directly through our Bordier UK platform and via third-party platforms.

Investment objective

To assist investors in drawdown, looking to build capital in real (inflation-adjusted) terms over the medium to longer term. Investors should expect reasonable correlation to stockmarket behaviour and rewards, including moderate to sharp fluctuations in values, but also some protection in times of market weakness.

Risk profile

The strategy is managed in accordance with Dynamic Planner risk profile 6 and is part of their RMD offering. The strategy's expected annual VaR is targeted to stay within the assigned Dynamic Planner risk profile's boundaries.

The strategy is categorised as a Bordier Decumulation Risk Profile 3.

Investment update

March concluded an excellent first quarter of the year for equity markets with the MSCI World Index up a further 3.4% in sterling terms. Markets remain encouraged by economic data pointing to a resilient economic backdrop, particularly in the US. The Japanese market continues to perform strongly as investors increasingly see value opportunities as the health of the economy and corporate sector continue to improve. Resilient economic data and cautious rhetoric from central banks continues to cause some volatility in fixed income markets. March, however, saw some positive returns across both sovereign and corporate bonds against a mixed inflation backdrop. The European Central Bank has flagged a possible interest rate cut in June, dependent on wage growth continuing to moderate, and the expectation for the number of rate cuts in the US this year has now fallen to three. No changes were made over the month as the strategy remains aligned to its corresponding Dynamic Planner risk profile. The US and Asia, now including Japan, remain our favoured regions for stockmarket exposure – these markets offer the best combination of plentiful and superior growth opportunities, attractive valuations, and access to longer-term beneficiaries of domestic demand and structural recovery potential. Exposure to European markets, including the UK, is also merited based on cheap valuations and future recovery potential. Within fixed income, our shifts made during 2023 and early 2024 to increase exposure to fixed interest investments are beginning to pay off as reductions in inflation and more certainty over interest rate cuts come into view. Exposure to alternative investments has been reduced in the past year to fund increased allocations to bond markets, but they have not lost their fundamental appeal.

Annualised expected loss (Value at Risk)

Value at Risk ('VaR') measures the expected maximum loss of a strategy, given usual market conditions, over a specific time period and at a particular confidence level.

*Annualised expected VaR (rounded to 1 d.p.) based on latest Dynamic Planner assumptions. Bordier UK asset allocation as at 31.03.24. Dynamic Planner calculates the strategy's VaR monthly using a 95% confidence level.

Why decumulation?

Investors drawing on their portfolio for a regular monthly income are in danger of negatively impacting the total return available to them based on the timing of their withdrawals. Known as sequencing risk, this can have a significant impact on an investor who depends on the income and is no longer contributing new capital that could offset losses.

Within a dedicated decumulation strategy, volatility is micro-managed to smooth out monthly performance and mitigate risk. By doing so, investors will experience less frequent volatility spikes, decreasing the speed at which the value of their portfolio shrinks.

- The strategies remain at the upper end of their corresponding Dynamic Planner risk profiles as we remain broadly optimistic about the economic outlook for the second half of 2024.
- We have trimmed our commitment to the US market and some thematic funds in favour of exposure to Europe and an increased allocation to Japan (excluding RTD 4) where opportunities have arisen.
- We continue to allocate to inflation-linked bond funds, actively managed strategic bond funds and 'market neutral' alternative investments, which continue to act as good portfolio stabilisers, diversifiers of risk and sources of return.
- Cash exposure remains low and there continues to be focus on high levels of liquidity in everything that we own.
