Investment objective

To build capital in real (inflation-adjusted) terms over the medium to longer term. Investors should expect a high correlation to stockmarket behaviour and rewards, including significant fluctuations in value, with only moderate protection in times of market weakness.

Risk profile

The strategy is managed in accordance with Dynamic Planner risk profile 6, with the strategy's expected volatility targeted to stay within the assigned Dynamic Planner risk profile's boundaries.

About the Hybrid Passive Risk Targeted Managed Service

Our Hybrid Passive Risk Targeted ('RT') Managed Service consists of five actively managed investment strategies (Hybrid Passive RT 3-7) that provide lower cost access to our discretionary fund management capabilities through the combination of active and passive collective investments. Each strategy has a different level of risk and expected return, and are rigorously mapped within the volatility boundaries assigned to specific Dynamic Planner risk profiles (RTM 3-7). The service provides a solution that, when cost considerations are paramount, does not compromise on quality.

Investment update

March concluded an excellent first quarter of the year for equity markets with the MSCI World Index up a further 3.4% in sterling terms. Markets remain encouraged by economic data pointing to a resilient economic backdrop, particularly in the US. The Japanese market continues to perform strongly as investors increasingly see value opportunities as the health of the economy and corporate sector continue to improve. Resilient economic data and cautious rhetoric from central banks continues to cause some volatility in fixed income markets. March, however, saw some positive returns across both sovereign and corporate bonds against a mixed inflation backdrop. The European Central Bank has flagged a possible interest rate cut in June, dependent on wage growth continuing to moderate, and the expectation for the number of rate cuts in the US this year has now fallen to three. No changes were made over the month as the strategy remains aligned to its corresponding Dynamic Planner risk profile. The US and Asia, now including Japan, remain our favoured regions for stockmarket exposure – these markets offer the best combination of plentiful and superior growth opportunities, attractive valuations, and access to longer-term beneficiaries of domestic demand and structural recovery potential. Exposure to European markets, including the UK, is also merited based on cheap valuations and future recovery potential. Within fixed income, our shifts made during 2023 and early 2024 to increase exposure to fixed interest investments are beginning to pay off as reductions in inflation and more certainty over interest rate cuts come into view. Exposure to alternative investments has been reduced in the past year to fund increased allocations to bond markets, but they have not lost their fundamental appeal.
