Working with Bordier UK

We have been looking to partner with an investment manager for the last two years. We needed to work with a firm that understood our investment ideas and wanted to work with us to make sure our DNA continued to run through our centralised investment proposition, also adding value, and with Bordier UK we have found exactly that.

We found Bordier UK's investment management team willing to listen, experienced and pro-active. We are now able to spend more time adding value for our clients through our financial planning, whilst the heavy lifting on the portfolio management is done for us by Bordier UK.

Adviser firm, East England

I was delighted with how much added value the team at Bordier UK have brought to our investment proposition, whilst maintaining our independent style and identity. They are an extremely knowledgeable team with a vast amount of experience in this area – my only regret was that we didn't do this years ago.

With less risk and administration for our business and an even stronger offering for our clients, we are very pleased to be partnered with Bordier UK.

Adviser firm, North West England

When we were looking for assistance with our investment proposition, it was really important that we found an investment firm that could work in line with our existing process. It was important that we could build a trusting and longstanding relationship. We required the firm to demonstrate extensive knowledge and access to specialist investment, tailored to our needs. After meeting many DFM firms, Bordier UK were the clear front runner and we have been absolutely thrilled with our decision.

Each and every part of the process from design and implementation through to service has been a delight. The sense that we, as a service-based family run business, are working with a similar structured firm, albeit with a global footprint, has made each part of the journey feel like a true partnership. We would highly recommend Bordier UK to any firm that are looking for a professional and trustworthy long term investment partner.
